Agreement and Release of Liability

I, _____, intending to be legally bound, do hereby, for myself, waive, release, and forever discharge any claims for damage I may incur, which may include injury or death, or which may hereafter accrue to me, against the Kendo Club members, instructors, community members and/or agents, the Associated Students of the University of California, The Regents of the University of California, its directors, officers, employees, and/or agents along with their members and agents for all or any damages which may be sustained or suffered by me in connection with my participation in activities of the Kendo Club, or arising out of transportation to and from the sites for activities of the Kendo Club or any partner organizations. I understand that in exchange for being allowed to participate in Kendo Club activities, I must take full responsibility for all damages sustained by myself and/or other students, including without limitation damages arising from negligence of any person, improper use of equipment, and all other wrongful conduct.

Where the member is a minor, the member's parent or legal guardian does hereby agree to this waiver and further authorize the Kendo Club or other authorities to seek medical attention for the minor in the event of sickness or injury. Physical activity, by its very nature, carries a risk of injury that can be reduced, but not eliminated regardless of efforts to avoid all injuries. Some exercises involve strenuous exertions of strength using various muscle groups, some involve quick movements involving speed and change of direction, and others involve sustained physical activity that places stress on the cardiovascular system.

Risk of injury varies by exercise, but risks range from 1) minor injuries such as bruises and sprains, 2) major injuries such as tendon rupture and joint dislocation, and 3) catastrophic injuries such as paralysis and death.

I am aware that Kendo is a Japanese martial art that is highly dangerous, and that my participation in the Kendo club and the sport of kendo involves numerous risks of injury, including, but not limited to, falls, loss of control, collisions with other people and natural and man-made objects. I understand and freely assume those risks.

As lawful consideration for being permitted to enroll in the Kendo Club and participate in its activities, I agree to release from any legal liability and agree not to sue the Regents of the University of California, the ASUC, the Kendo Club, or any of their owners, officers, directors, members, students, agents and employees, for any and all injuries caused by or resulting from any participation in the Kendo Club or the sport of kendo whether or not such injury or death was caused by alleged negligence and whether the activities took place on or off a university campus.

Indemnifications, Defense, and Hold Harmless: I also agree to indemnify, defend, and hold The Regents of the University of California, the ASUC, the Berkeley Kendo Dojo, the Northern California Kendo Federation, All United States Kendo Federation, International Kendo Federation (FIK) and the Kendo Club harmless from any and all claims, actions, suits, procedures, costs, expenses, damages and liabilities, including attorney's fees brought as a result of my involvement with the Kendo Club and to reimburse them for any such expenses incurred.

Severability: The undersigned further expressly agrees that the foregoing waiver and assumption of risks agreement is intended to be as broad and inclusive as is permitted by the law of the State of California and that if any portion thereof is held invalid, it is agreed that the balance shall, notwithstanding, continue in full legal force and effect.

Acknowledgement of Understanding: I have read this waiver of liability, assumption of risk, and indemnity agreement, fully understand its terms, and understand that this contract is legally binding and that I am releasing substantial rights, including my right to sue. I acknowledge that I am signing the agreement freely and voluntarily, and intend by my signature to be a complete and unconditional release of all liability to the greatest extent allowed by law.
